Richard Youins, is a Peer Support Specialist at the Connecticut Mental Health Center. He recently organized a powerful conversation in honor of Black History Month and has provided the musical soundtrack to four funerals since the COVID-19 pandemic started.