Jennifer Earheart, MA
Project Coordinator
University of New Mexico, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences

Jennifer Earheart, M.A. is a Project Coordinator with the University of New Mexico, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences, Division of Community Behavioral Health. In 2019 she co-authored a report with Dr. Annette Crisanti titled Peer Support Workers in the Emergency Department (ED). The report identifies possible barriers, or challenges, and facilitators to successful implementation of peer support workers in the hospital to address the opioid use disorder problem, with a focus on the ED setting.